

OK, it's an easy enough exercise to play, and you could memorize it in less time than it takes to play it. But if you were reading it for the very first time, it looks intimidating. Yeah, looks intimidating. Look at fewer notes!

Only play the notes you are focusing on- the first note of each grouping. Read ahead to the next "first note."

Sticking: all lefts until...

here: all rights.

Now focus your eyes on the first two notes of each grouping.

And finally, the first three notes of each grouping.

Now try reading and playing whole groups, one at a time.

Use these three beats to look at the next measure.
